The 30 years

The 30th anniversary has historically represented the timeless beauty and rarity of one's emotion for someone, similar to pearls, which naturally take time to form.

The years are filled with priceless memories and unique experiences of both joy and suffering.

Someone believed that one's tears were constituted of water, but those who knew better realized that they were actually pearls [ মুক্তাশ্রু ].

Does the noteworthy achievement deserve recognition?

Eternal time says— no.
